Take a Tanzanian Safari with Us

Private Tanzanian safaris are designed by The Jim Arden Foundation for individuals, families, school and other small groups. It is our goal on these trips to combine your African experience with the opportunity for you to play a personal role in one of our TACODA initiatives. Each safari is designed to meet your specific requirements.

Upon completion of these trips, it is our hope that you will join our cadre of volunteers, remaining in contact with and beginning to develop long-term relationships with the recipients of your aid, communicating by mail and email, and that you choose to return to see their progress as time progresses.

If you wish us to create a private safari for you, your friends or group, your preferences regarding dates, quality of accommodations, location, and ease of travel will be factored-in to maximize your enjoyment. Typically, our trips take place during January, August and on school breaks.

In planning a private trip with us, please bear in mind that we require trip dates to be finalized at least four months prior to your desired departure date. Costs for a safari vary significantly based on the safari's length and the quality of lodging you prefer. However, in whatever type of safari you design, a non-refundable deposit of $2,500 (applied to your safari's total cost) will be due at the time your departure date is agreed.

Additionally, 50% of the trip fee will be due three months prior to your departure date; another 25% will be due two month prior to your departure date, and the remaining fee, if any, must be paid one month prior to your departure. If for some reason, you do not depart on your safari, your previously paid fees will be returned less actual costs already incurred for the trip and your $2,500 not refundable deposit.

If you are interested in having a private safari designed for you, your family, friends, or school group, please send an email as early as possible to JimArden4TACODA@aol.com. You may also send us a request by mail at The Jim Arden Foundation, P.O. Box 4, Cos Cob CT 06807.
